IT'S COLORS

Soft muted tones with bold pops of color:

- Turquoise and green : (for ex: the world, knight of pentacles, Ace, 7 and 8 of pentacles) connexion to other beings, earth matters, result of seeds that we planted long ago, bloom and enjoy.
- Many nuances of violet, purple : in all the cards ! Deep within ourselves, there is an explored world, yet rich with its teachings and messages. It may appear as strange, however, it'll bring you freedom from the boxes you live in. So drop your walls, and have a new look at things.
- Yellow, Gold : (seen in many cards like the suit of wands, the Hierophant, the Sun, many creatures have golden hair) Magic, abundance, enlightenment, awakening, I am the power of Light, in some cards this color give us ALL the answer, in others it just mirror it in a small way and tests us to see if we go deeper. It is an invitation to take our power and to see all the opportunities and possibilities. I Am.
- Other colors : brown and greys, with a splash of red.

Oracle used : Farben del angel

WHAT DO COLORS MEAN FOR US ?

- colours blend and create a softness and tenderness
- Nurturing and supportive
- Help bring a greater perspective to readings.

CARDS THAT YOU MAY BE IN LOVE WITH OR THAT MAY FREAK YOU OUT

- The cards have gentleness. It is reliable, loyal and protective. Most cards are lovely. But some cards may freak you out because of your own story (buzieness, remind you of someone, etc)

MAIN SYMBOLS

Nautilus

- It seems to have a big importance in this deck
"The Nautilus Shell embodies the element of water and intern enhances these living qualities such as cleansing, purification, and healing. The Nautilus Shell, particularly the Natural Nautilus Pendant in the 'Jewels of the Sea' Collection, is a great tool to use for meditation.2 Nov 2015 » shared by Luci Fae : <https://www.themermaidcollective.com/.../75225540-secret...>

« help us clean and clear any imbalance, heal our memories .. » Ouassima

Foxes: imply clever, quick wits but can also imply cunning and also be a warning of aggression and protective earthy instincts and reactions such as the 7 wands.

Doves appear in the Lovers indicating a higher form of Love that is needed to make the best choice, symbolize peace and higher missions

Green ball: 2 pentacles, magician, six of wands, queen of wands. Symbol of power of manifestation and transformation, strength and abundance, creativity

Yellow ball: Fool, Strength, King of wands, Nine of wands, death : Strength, source of energy, energy in its pure and higher state

The owl : High priestess and page of pentacles : the mystery and knowledge, will it awaken in the 2 of pentacles ?

The monkey appears in the fool and 2 of pentacles.

In the fool card, the fairy / woman is standing on a kind of statue where we find 3 monkeys that has a butterfly, a flower and a heart, a ball of light is hidden with them and represents for me the potential "to become", the beginning, the awakening.

In 2 of pentacles, the monkey is with the man OVER the green statue (the statue became animated green, the monkeys released). The monkey always with a butterfly on the nose, shows hope, sweetness.

The juggler with two symbols: the fire on his chest / heart, and the water on his feet.

Among other possibilities, monkeys show us our the mind, our hidden parts that have needs (to find the love, the adventure, the softness, etc.)

Roses

- Roses are the predominate flower, in this deck. They have several colors which is worth analysing, but mostly they symbolise divine love, creativity, sensuality, being guided by the heart
- Dandelion seeds in 8 of wands, deal with potential of growth, courage, enlightenment
- Calla Lily Or Dragon Lily? In Queen of swords : inner strength, Purple for mental clarity and calmness, royalty, charm and passion
- Lilies in the Loverscard symbolize the pure beauty
- Lotus in 4 of swords : enlightenment, spiritual and mental purity

We encourage you to study the other flowers to get to know they symbolism : Thanks to Tara-Leigh Reyes who identified the flowers for us : « The Moon maybe Hyacinth, Judgement has pansies, Death is Iris, Five of Pentacles possibly Sweet peas »

Red Ribbon :

For Ouassima : « They Represent :

- a choice : proposition of choice or the responsibility to complete fully a choice already made.
- The result of the choice (see it in the impress, six of cups, lovers),
- They are related to action, fire, commitment (to life in the emperor, to love in the 2 of swords, to courage and in nine of wands, etc.)
- They remind me of the “role”, everyone is acting in a certain place of consciousness (the world). The act starts when the soul comes to earth (see the fool card) but has to remember that this act is not the Source of the soul (the Moon, seven of swords) »

For Efsun : « senses, sensations, fe/male energy. red is the colour of blood so eternity, just adding up we see red wedding dresses especially in historical asian dramas, so I'm gonna add wealth, health »

For Angeline : « Base chakra »

For Shilo : « For some reason, blood comes to mind- our life blood that travels through our hearts... »

And Luci found this : "It's interesting to learn about this red ribbon symbolism, especially considering that many cultures see the color red as a protective one - against the evil eye for instance, or against bad luck in general [in China for instance]. Still in China, red is supposed to bring good luck and is traditionally used in weddings and other happy moments.

Thinking that red is also the color of the blood, we can also think of life - we can't live without blood in our veins. We can only control our own lives, up to....."
